

Our Lesson Policy

Our Fees: The national price range for weekly private music lessons is $30 – $100. Our prices are very reasonable at $50 per week, payable a month in advance ($200).

Payments: Lessons are due and payable on the same day that you started taking lessons. Example: If you initially started on the 11th of a month, your payment will be deducted from your bank account on the 11th of every month. You also get an extra lesson if your lesson day occurs five times a month. This happens four times per year.

Makeup lessons: Because the lessons are paid in advance, we cannot refund payments. However, we will gladly make room for makeup lessons. You need to let us know, three days in advance!

Temporary lesson changes: We will go out of our way to accommodate temporary lesson time changes. Occasionally a teacher may have to reschedule, as well. 48-hr notice must be provided by either party.

Permanent cancelations: If you are going to cancel permanently, we need a four-week notice. This allows us to cancel your recurring auto pay before the renewal due date.

Teaching material: Teaching material suggested by your teacher is at an additional cost. Many of our teachers just have the student purchase on the Internet.

Student-teacher relationship: Please remember, a teacher-student relationship is a long-term commitment to each other. Our teachers are serious about providing a quality musical education. Students must allot a certain amount of time every day to their studies.

Thank you. We are honored to have you as a client and look forward to a long association!
